CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: This is the July 23rd meeting. Thank you, everyone, for joining us. We do have some new faces to go around and discuss. I think what $I$ would like to do first and foremost is welcome and thank our new director. Welcome. Do you want to introduce yourself?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Sure. Well, listen, first of all, thanks to all of you, number one, welcome to our new board members, strong welcome to those that are remaining on the board and thank you for your continued commitment to this board and the work that the board has been doing up to this point.

I also want to extend the very warm welcome and thanks to the members of the public that are here, because that's really an important part, I believe, for this advisory board as I kind of undertake my new role as director of this department and seek your input and guidance with respect to the issues that are pertinent to the amusement and carnival ride, you know, division.

My name is Hugo Chaviano. I joined as Director of the Illinois Labor Department on January 28th of this year. I was confirmed by the senate in March, and really this is my first gig as a government official.

(Laughter.)
MEMBER SULLIVAN: Yay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I'm not a politician. I have never been involved in government. I was a practicing attorney for the past 35 years. As a matter of fact, Dan and I have been on the opposite side of the fence in litigation --

MR. KIRSCHNER: You won.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: -- trying cases together.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: That's why he's director.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And, you know, I have done this, $I$ have made this commitment to public service because I believe in the need for Illinois to return to its greatness. I think that I'm part of an administration which is committed to seeing that happen, and, I, you know, very much would like to do what $I$ can to be part of that process.
So without any further adieu, if we can maybe get going with the proceedings.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: What I would like to do is just some brief introductions around the table so the Director knows who we all are and we meet our new member.

I'm Dan Kirschner, the Chair.
MS. KELLY: I'm Annice Kelly, the general counsel for the Department of Labor.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: I'm Patty Sullivan from Eli Bridge Company, and I'm a public member.

MEMBER SPARKS: Bill Sparks, board member, with American Banner Amusements.

MEMBER SCHWABE: Dan Schwabe. I'm an operator member from Six Flags Great America.

MEMBER PERZEE: I'm Marvin Perzee from Iroquois County associated with the fair industry.

MR. CULTON: Ryan Culton. I'm the division manager.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: And on the phone.
Angelo.
MEMBER MAZZENGA: Angelo Mazzenga, public member, the engineer member.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: And do we have Linda on the phone today? Did she not make it?

MR. CULTON: We tried.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And if I may, Angelo, I wanted to thank you. I understand that you have had some major flight issues this morning. I have also flown on Spirit and had a similar experience. So, you know, thank you for making this extra effort and joining us by phone.

MEMBER MAZZENGA: Well, you are welcome. I'm very sorry I missed it. I will do better next time(Laughter.) Fly United.
(Laughter.)
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: The next matter on the agenda is the approval of the agenda. All the board members had an opportunity to review the agenda. Do we have a motion to approve it?

MEMBER SPARKS: I will make a motion.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Second?
MEMBER SULLIVAN: Second.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: All in favor?
(WHEREUPON, there was a chorus of ayes. )
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Any opposition?
(No response.)
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Motion carries. The agenda is approved.

The second matter on the agenda, approval of the minutes. In your case packet are the minutes, if you want to take a minute to read through those.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: I move to accept the minutes as printed.

MEMBER SPARKS: I second.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: All in favor?
(WHEREUPON, there was a chorus of ayes.)

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Any opposition?
(No response.)
MEMBER SULLIVAN: I don't think we ever had such short minutes.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Next, new business.
First matter is nomination of chair. Under the CARSA Act, the chair of the board is nominated and voted on by the board. There is no provision for term limits or how long, when to have those votes. Now seems as good as any time to bring the issue up again.

Any issues in terms of anyone who wants to make any nominations?

MEMBER SPARKS: I would like to nominate Patty Raine.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: Sullivan. I haven't been Raine for a long time. No more Raine days, just remember that.

MEMBER SPARKS: Patty Sullivan.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Any other nominations?
(No response.)
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: I will nominate myself. I have enjoyed serving. I would be happy to continue serving.

Any second for either nomination?
(No response.)
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Hearing no seconds, what does Roberts say in terms of no seconds?

MEMBER PERZEE: You don't need a second, do you, for a nomination?

MEMBER SULLIVAN: Yes.
MEMBER PERZEE: You do? I would second

Patty's nomination.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Do we need a second? I would second Dan's nomination.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Thank you very much.
And in terms of Roberts, in terms of having a vote where we would need a majority of a majority to approve, we have seven present and two nominations. How is that going to pan out?

MS. KELLY: You need a majority of the quorum.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Majority of the quorum, okay.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Do we have a quorum?
MS. KELLY: We have -- a quorum is five, and so you need at least three.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: To carry the vote?
MS. KELLY: To carry the vote. And so anything more than three would carry the vote.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
MEMBER SULLIVAN: Out of seven? Out of seven?

MS. KELLY: Well, the quorum is five.
MEMBER SULLIVAN: Okay.

MS. KELLY: So you need a majority of, at least, a minimum, a majority of the quorum, which is three. In case people abstain is what I'm saying.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: Okay. I see.
MS. KELLY: So obviously a majority of the vote carries the day. All right.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Got you. Okay. Do we present one?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I guess discussion. I mean, $I$ don't know Patty, and I don't know why she's not here.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: I'm here.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: You mean Linda.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Oh, you are Patty?
MEMBER SULLIVAN: Yes.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Oh, I'm sorry. I thought it was somebody who was nominated that was not here. Okay. So, no. My question was going to be, are we sure Patty wants to serve as chair. So, no. Okay. Got it. Bam. All right. Sorry.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: I would be honored.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Just trying to get acquainted with the names and the faces. Perfect. Okay. Very good. All right. So now we proceed to --

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: In terms of, is it by ballot, or do we put one name up and vote on each name at a time?

MS. KELLY: I think you open it up for discussion possibly, unless you want to go straight to a vote.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Is there any discussion you would like to have?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, and I don't know if this is appropriate under these circumstances, but is there any statement that either one of the candidates would like to make with respect to, you know, chairing the board?

MEMBER SULLIVAN: I think if you want to go first, since you are the current chair.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. So if you would like to make. I mean, it's an optional thing, but $I$ don't know if anybody, you know, if you guys would like to make a statement or just go to a vote.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: I think we can go to vote.
MEMBER SULLIVAN: That's fine with me.
MR. JOHNSON: Do we have a right to speak?
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: No. There is a provision on the agenda for public comments --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: At the end.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: -- at the end.
MR. JOHNSON: Can you wait to vote on this for the public to speak about the two candidates?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I believe when it comes to the operations of the board, that is a board function. It's not something that is opened up in that context. I mean, the public can observe and then make comments, but I don't believe that they partake, but our general counsel can guide us on that.

MS. KELLY: Right. I believe that on matters of who should be the chair, I don't know that that's a subject for public comment, and so $I$ think in order -- there has to be a chair to run this meeting. So at a minimum I think that either Dan has to remain the chair, but...

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: No. There is a vote that is going to take place.

MS . KELLY: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So there is a vote.
MS. KELLY: Well, I think the vote has been called for. So I think the vote is appropriate.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Exactly. But in response to the gentleman's question, and $I$ was looking to you for reaffirmation of this, my understanding is that there is no -- you know, the proceedings of the board with respect to the election of a chair is not something that the public weighs in. It is a board decision, it is a nomination that is made by board members and is voted upon by board members only.

MS. KELLY: I believe that's correct.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Right. So all right. So with that said, I guess, Dan, you are chairing the meeting. So I guess you call for the vote for each one of the candidates.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Sure.
All those in favor of Dan Kirschner as chair, say aye.
Aye.
All those in favor of Patty as chair say aye.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: Aye.
MEMBER SPARKS: Aye.
MEMBER SCHWABE: Aye.
MEMBER PERZEE: Aye.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Angelo, do you vote one way or the other?

MEMBER MAZZENGA: Dan, I think I would like to remain neutral. I think you are a great leader.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: You don't have to explain anything.

MEMBER MAZZENGA: I think you are a great leader of the meetings and you keep it on task. I think Patty has extraordinary knowledge of the subject matter. I would prefer you be the chair, but I think Patty deserves a special place on the board. So I'm going to have to abstain if $I$ can, if that's possible.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Anything you want is possible.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. So, Angelo, so are you abstaining or are you voting?

MEMBER MAZZENGA: Well, okay. For reasons -- I'm going to vote to maintain Dan. Yeah, I'm going to vote for Dan.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. So right now we have three? Four. Okay. I would vote to support Dan, but obviously that's not going to carry the vote. So with that said, Patty, so you are the new chair.

CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: Congratulations.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. Congratulations.

MEMBER SULLIVAN: Hand bump.
CHAIRMAN KIRSCHNER: I turn over the meeting.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: First then I would like to thank you for your service. I know it takes a lot of time and energy to be here and be up on what's being done, and I think we all appreciate all the time and energy you have spent.

MR. KIRSCHNER: Thank you very much. I know you will be a wonderful chair. I have enjoyed working with you.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: All right. So I guess at this point you continue with the agenda.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Then the next thing is rider safety language, and in your packets there is a handout, and I didn't get all the comments back from other people in the industry before $I$ had to get this sent in to make the agenda so there are a couple of places where we would probably want to make changes in terms of, for instance, $A$, under, "A rider may not --" Or under 5, I'm sorry, "An operator of an amusement park ride," and change that to amusement park, carnival or FEC, and everywhere else where it says an amusement park, change it, add in carnival and FEC, and that just got by me.

So I would suggest those changes, but I would like to start out with this to propose, and I think if we had -- Have you all had a chance to read it over and think about it?

MEMBER PERZEE: Not really.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: No? Yes?
(No response.)
Marzullo Reporting Agency
(312) 321-9365

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, then would we like to have, in case there are any other changes, would we like to have a subcommittee then? Maybe three people to -- maybe one from the public and two from the board, since we can't have three board members talking together.

MS. KELLY: Correct. That's a meeting.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Right. So two from the board. Does anybody else want to volunteer?

MR. KIRSCHNER: I'll pose an objection. I don't think there is a provision in CARSA or in their rights for non-committee members, non-board members to serve on board committees.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: We have had non-board members before.

MR. KIRSCHNER: I'm trying to think if Ryan counts as a non-board member. He's a member of the Department.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Speak up, Dan, so I can hear.

MR. KIRSCHNER: Ryan is a member of the Department. I don't think he counts as a non-board member for that purpose.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: He is a non-board member. I mean, I appreciate that he is with the Department, the Department of Labor, but he is not a board member, and the whole idea is to get, I think three is a good number for a committee, and is there any provision against having a non-board member on a committee who just proposes something to the board?

MR. KIRSCHNER: Annice.
MS. KELLY: I'm looking at the exact statute.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And just so that I understand, Patty, what you are saying is that you would like a member of the public at large --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: -- to be part of a committee that is going to make a recommendation to the board?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: To the board.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: On this particular issue?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yes.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. Just so I understand.

MS. KeLLy: Well, I would like to have the opportunity to look into that issue. So if we could --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
MS. KELLY: -- table that issue and maybe I could get back to the board at a later date, but soon.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
MS. KELLY: Because I think that's a gray area question potentially.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Because we have had other like guests at our committee meetings who have been involved in the area that we have been discussing, so...

MS. KELLY: Well, I think the potential exists for them to maybe, you know, act as a consultant, but I don't think -- you know, an official seat on a subcommittee $I$ think is a questionable kind of area.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: So we should have two people on a subcommittee?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And I'm just -- again,

I have to be guided by my general counsel.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: In my experience with boards, not this board, but is that typically subcommittees of a board are formed by a core group of that board that either have a special interest on the subject or have a special expertise on the subject that they are going to be working on, and so $I$ have never in my experience seen that a subcommittee goes outside of its body to seek out somebody that otherwise is not formally part of the board.

That's my experience, but I would defer, you know, for a formal guidance from the general counsel.

MS. KELLY: And I would second what the director just said. I have experience with subcommittees seeking guidance from non-board members, but I'm unfamiliar with any non-board member officially sitting on a subcommittee, which is why $I$ would like, you know, the opportunity to review that issue.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
MS. KELLY: Because in my experience I'm unfamiliar with that.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, we don't want to do anything that's not right.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: No. No. No. Of course. And I don't think that that is anybody's -- you know, and obviously we are all working here towards a common goal and as a community of interested people. I would think it would be appropriate, for example, if the committee, subcommittee rather, you know, got to the point that it would want input from the public for it to have its own meeting where it invites the public to hear --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: -- feedback, and then take that and work with that feedback.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So that's where I would see that engagement.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: But again --
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: That would be fine.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah, so...
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: That would be fine.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So that's a way that I think from a structural standpoint it would be, it would play out.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
MR. KNIGHT: If the opportunity arises, I would be happy to volunteer my services.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
MR. KIRSCHNER: I just again object to any comments from the audience, as we are not in the audience comment section yet.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: If I may, and just, you know, just so we don't -- I want to assure the group that has taken the time to be part of this meeting, you know, the public part, that, you know, you will definitely have an opportunity to partake, to give comments at the end.

So if there are special items that, you know, we are talking about during the course of the meeting, we just ask, you know, make a little note, and there will be plenty of time, we will be able to come back to it. So don't -- you know, we are not going to keep anybody from, you know, from speaking, because I in particular want, you know, this kind of engagement. So thank you for your comments, sir, and your offer. Okay.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Well, we will wait to hear from you, Annice, and then we will designate the committee members then. Is that --

MS. KELLY: That's fine. Thank you. Thank you.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Sure. Just for the board's, the board's sake, to explain this a little bit, this is kind of mirrored. I submitted a different rider responsibility section in the fall, but there were some issues with that one that $I$ heard from several people. So I looked elsewhere, and this is taken from the Idaho -- No.

MR. JOHNSON: Utah.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Utah. Thank you. The Utah law. And this doesn't have anything in it that says that anybody is criminally or civilly liable for anything. It just -hopefully it will put up one more opportunity to inform the public of the rules and that they are responsible to follow the rules, besides all the signage that is already there and the operators giving verbal directions, and just trying to make the public more aware that they need to follow the rules.

It's not, it doesn't take any privileges away from anyone unless they are under the influence, and then they can be expelled, but other than that -- from the ride.

The next thing is the rider -- or the anti-waiver clause.

MR. KIRSCHNER: That's a provision that's going to -- hand it over to the Department. Inasmuch as we are an advisory board, we do not promulgate rules. Rather, it is for the Department to promulgate rules and come back to us. It's a suggestion. It is something done in almost all consumer safety statutes in the State of Illinois, which is basically a provision that prohibits the waiver of the rights contained within the statute intended to protect the public.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: We are not asking for any waivers of rides in this.

MR. KIRSCHNER: We are on the next agenda item. It has nothing to do with your proposal.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
MR. KIRSCHNER: Yeah. Basically you find in a lot of consumer protection statutes where there are provisions written by the legislature to protect the consumer. It prohibits entities from contracting away those safety measures. So you can't enter a contract saying, we don't have to abide by CARSA, we don't have to abide by the 6,000 regs.

You find it in not just consumer protection statutes. You find it in virtually every statute directed at industries such as the health club statute, there is a dating services act statute. You find it in franchise statutes. Many different statutes have various forms of anti-waiver clauses.

So at this point there is none in CARSA or our regs. So I just present this to the Department for your consideration.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, there are already, just to comment on that, there are already waivers in the ski industry which is also under the purview of this committee, and it's is already law and has been law for a long time.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: When you buy your ski ticket, you are responsible to act reasonably, and they do waive their rights. So I don't think we are here to change the ski industry.

So anything else on that? Questions, comments?
(No response.)
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Moving onto background checks.

MR. CULTON: I will speak to that, Patty. So background checks, from a Departmental standpoint we have had, there was a bill that was introduced earlier this spring, and I would like to hand it over to Chris Wieneke, who is our legislative liaison with the Department, and I think Chris could maybe just give an overview of the bill that was introduced and maybe where that status is, and then once that is kind of thrown out there, Chris, we can kind of back into the concern of it.

MR. WIENEKE: Okay. Yeah. No, that's not a problem. Chris Wieneke, legislative liaison for the Department.

So the bill was introduced by Marty Moylan, who is a representative from Suburban Chicago. It would have required background checks of all employees of all amusement companies, carnivals, everyone, including up to and beyond that, including volunteers. It was brought to his attention it would be a very difficult thing from a Department standpoint to enforce. He's holding the bill right now, but his intention is probably to come back next spring with a trimmed-down version of that. To what point, we do not know. He has discussed the idea of meetings during the fall.

MR. CULTON: Veto session?
MR. WIENEKE: After veto session. In the new meetings he won't introduce any veto to my knowledge.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Is he aware of the existing background check rule?
MR. WIENEKE: Yes. He is very much aware of it.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Is he thinking the church people who are working at a carnival or at, you know, on property, and all those?

MR. WIENEKE: Yes. That was his initial thoughts. Although he has come off of that, and where he winds up landing will be part of the meetings that he has this fall.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okey-doke.
MR. WIENEKE: He realizes the scope of the bill was much too large.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Thank you.
MR. CULTON: And then, Patty, I didn't, just a thing to touch on what Chris talked about, that was a strong concern from a Departmental operational aspect, about where we are with the number of inspectors that we have, resources that we have, to fully enforce that the way it was going to be broadened, and I don't know, Director Chaviano, if you wanted to touch on any of that as well, or if that was sufficient for kind of where we are.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, my understanding with respect to the background checks is that the Department has opposed that additional burden because we really don't have the resources.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: To police it, to enforce it. So we are not -- you know, we are not supportive of that legislation is my recollection. Right?

MR. WIENEKE: Yeah.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Anything else on that?
(No response.)
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. The next item is safety division operations update, and I'm guessing that would be you, Ryan.

MR. CULTON: That's me again. Thank you, Patty. I wanted to just touch base on a few things within the division. The first is, we have had a few changes over the spring. I think that they have really been good. One of them I would like to say, Jill Mazirm, sitting right over here, has joined the Department of Labor, and she is in our Springfield office and so she will be --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: So you have some help?

MR. CULTON: Yeah. Got some help.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yay.
MR. CULTON: We are all very glad to see her and that she has joined the team. Thanks to Chief of Staff, Dan Mumpher, and Director Chaviano. They saw that need as soon as they came in and we filled that role. So thank you, both of you, for helping with that, and another thing that is really good with the division is in the spring we were able to -- all five inspectors have been able to get a new tablet.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Oh, good.
MR. CULTON: Our old machines were very outdated, and so we have got some new tablets, and the nice thing about the tablets is, they are touch screen and the operators are actually able to sign for each one of their inspection reports when the inspection is over with, and we have WI-FI access with our new phones as well, and we can email the inspection reports right to the operators as soon as they are finished with the inspection.

It makes our lives a lot easier. It has also been beneficial to the operators because there are local jurisdictions that want to make sure that they have been inspected by the state, or if they are moving to a different location, they can then email those. It's just a list of their inspections and their permits, and then they can email that to the next entity so that they can show that they have been inspected and permitted, and so I think that's a great benefit to us and it's a benefit to the people who are obtaining the permits. So a bit of good news, and $I$ just wanted to share that. MEMBER SPARKS: It's working well with us too.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Good. Well, I know they have an unbelievably big job to do and lots to do and that should make them more efficient. So that's a good thing, and give you faster feedback.

MR. CULTON: Yep.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Good. Anything else?

MR. CULTON: Not on that topic. CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Open Meetings Act reminder. So you have the floor now.

MS. KELLY: I'm going to take that. I have some handouts. This is -- the first handout is just frequently asked questions from the Attorney General's website. The Attorney General of Illinois enforces the Open Meetings Act. So just some information for you all. And you will see that it gives a good overview. It explains what a public body is, what a meeting is, and just as a reminder, you know, the big issue for public boards, in my opinion, is what is a meeting. And so I'm passing out just a single-page sheet.

A meeting, as was already alluded to, is a majority of the quorum. So a quorum for this board is five. So a majority of five is three. So any time three members of this board gather, and I use gather in quotes because that could be on email. So if three of you are on an email or on a phone call or send a text message and you are discussing public business, that is considered a meeting, and therefore it has to fit the requirements of the Open Meetings Act. And so as a result of that, you know, obviously the recommendation would be that three of you do not discuss business without following all of the many requirements of the Open Meetings Act. That's the biggest thing to remember.

New board members have to be trained within 90 days of assuming your responsibilities, and on the sheet you will see I put the link to the Open Meetings Act training. So for those new members I would, you know, hope that you get to do that within the next three months, and it's not a bad reminder for all board members.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. This is not hope. This is they must, they got to do it, and they have to notify us that in fact they have done that so that, you know, we have a record of that.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: I think we get a certificate printed out at the end, don't we?

MS. KELLY: You do. You do get a certificate, and we would like you to forward that certificate to us so that we can maintain it.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: We need you to forward that certificate to us.
(Laughter.)
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: So those of us who have been on the board and have already done that training are not required to forward anything? I think it's great to have the reminders of this because it's easy, it's easy to forget, but I think we got drilled pretty well about no more than two people can talk about any board business, so...

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. I think for purposes of, you know, efficiency, record keeping, just organization, it would be good that we have on file with our general counsel the certificates of everybody so that we know everybody, and if we are missing somebody, then we can be proactive about checking as to, you know, if they don't have, if they have it, send us a copy. If not, you got to complete the training.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, do you get those records passed to you?

MEMBER SPARKS: Where do we send the copies?

MS. KELLY: Well, I gave you all my card. So you can send them to me. And also, if you have any questions, you know, about the Open Meetings Act, feel free to contact me.

Like the Director, I'm new to public service. So I'm new to the Open Meetings Act. So you will have to be a little patient if $I$ don't know your answer off the top of my head, but I certainly will look into it and get back to you.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Anything else on that?

MS. KELLY: Nope. I think that should be it.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Well, thank you.

Travel reimbursements for board members. Who has got that one?

MR. CULTON: I'll take that. So Jill probably emailed all of the board members a couple days ago a copy of the travel voucher form.

MS. HUI: It was yesterday.
MR. CULTON: Just yesterday, and included in that was how to fill out a travel voucher. So I just wanted to remind the board members that, of course, there is a $$ 36$ per day, or per diem, excuse me, that you get for attending the board meeting today, and that is -- just think of that as automatically done. Once you attend the board meeting, then we give a list to the comptroller, and you will get a check in who knows how long.
(Laughter.)
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: You will have forgotten about that meeting by the time you get it.

MR. CULTON: I didn't know what the turn-around time was on that, but as far as the travel voucher, the travel voucher would include, $I$ believe it says, any reasonable and necessary travel expenses. So if you have got mileage, or you took the train, or anything that's reasonable in getting here to the board meeting and back home is all state business since you are a board member and is reimbursable.

You all have my number so you can call me if you have questions, but you can call me, send the travel voucher to me, and then we will get it processed, but we do have a nice form in there about how to fill out a travel voucher, and then a travel voucher that you can fill out by hand, and that was it. So we just want to give reminders, because we have a few new board members, and, you know, we just want to make sure that everybody knows that they are reimbursed for that cost.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Do you prefer hard copies or are scanned and emailed copies okay or...

MR. CULTON: We need a hard copy because we have to have a signature.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: A signature. Okay.
MR. CULTON: And if you have questions, just give me a call. I'll help you figure it out.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay. Next meeting locations and times.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, I will speak, you know, briefly on that and then seek Ryan's input as well as the rest of the board on this.

My understanding is that the January meeting is the big meeting that this advisory board has historically had.

My understanding is that that meeting has historically been held in Springfield, and my meeting -- my understanding is that that is the meeting that typically also has the largest attendance.

I would not want to upset the apple cart, especially if that has proven to be a good formula for getting the most public participation. So, you know, my recommendation, my desire actually is that, you know, we go ahead and continue that practice and that we work on a date for the next meeting in Springfield. I believe that in the past it has been done in January.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I don't know how cold
it gets in Springfield.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: It's the coldest weekend of the year.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah.
MEMBER PERZEE: Usually snow.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Always.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. But in any event, but, you know, I guess I would like to, you know, be guided by -- you know, I don't want to call it the old timers in the sense of old timers. The people with the most seniority in the board for, you know, suggesting a date. CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Typically it has been -- well, it used to be on a Friday night and then Saturday morning, and to help reduce state spending for those meetings it was moved to Thursday and not have a second meeting, which it is kind of difficult I think because then there is no -- the Thursday night meeting was, or Thursday evening meeting was everyone, and we would go over what the agenda was going to be and bring up issues, and so everybody who was a stakeholder in the industry here was aware of what was being considered, what was going on, those kinds of things.
And then this last time it was moved from 6:00 o'clock to 1:00 o'clock, and most of the -- it has always been held during or just prior to the Illinois Fair Board meetings so that it's in conjunction with that, and since people are gathering there anyway, it's a good venue for this meeting.

But most people in this, in the industry, the stakeholders, don't usually get there until about 4:00 or 5:00 in the afternoon. And so many, many of them missed the 1:00 o'clock meeting. So I would suggest that we have it at at least 4:00 or 5:00 so that we can include those people, because I think they are very, very important in us making good rules and making good decisions because they are part of the stakeholders of the safety of the state.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Any other thoughts, comments, input?
(No response.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So what is the date that you are proposing?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Um, the

Wednesday --
MEMBER SPARKS: Thursday.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Thursday, excuse me. The Thursday just previous to when the fair board meeting starts.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Does anybody know when this is?

MEMBER SPARKS: It is always typically January 19 or something like that.

MEMBER PERZEE: Third full weekend.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Third full weekend.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Of January?
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-hmm.
MR. JOHNSON: Probably the 14th.
MEMBER PERZEE: I don't have the dates with me, but it's usually the third full weekend, and I don't think we got it here.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: It's usually the next weekend I think.

MEMBER SPARKS: It almost always hits around the 19th.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yeah, 19th, 20th.
MEMBER PERZEE: When is Martin Luther King Day? That usually is on a Monday, which allows a lot of people that day.
MR. JOHNSON: That's the 18th.
MEMBER PERZEE: So the 14th.
MEMBER SPARKS: It's like the 21st.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So the first weekend in January, Friday is the first of the year. Then the next Friday is the $8 t h$, and the next one is the 15th.

MEMBER PERZEE: That would be what I think it is, the third full weekend.

MEMBER SPARKS: I think it's -- yeah. It's always hits near the 20th.

MEMBER PERZEE: It would be Martin Luther King's Day.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Martin Luther King Day is January 18th.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: So it would be the Thursday prior to that.

MEMBER PERZEE: Yep. A lot of people that are involved, they have that day off so they got time to get home.

MEMBER MAZZENGA: 21st and 22nd.
MEMBER SPARKS: Uh-huh.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: No. It's usually prior to that, isn't it?
MEMBER PERZEE: Prior to that. Third full weekend.

MR. JOHNSON: Probably the 14th. 14th to the 17th, but the 14 th is the meeting day.

MEMBER SPARKS: That's not thea full week.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, Friday, Saturday and Sunday is a full weekend. So the 1st, 2nd, 3rd.

MEMBER SPARKS: Oh, okay.
MEMBER PERZEE: It's only Saturday. Then we come back.

MR. CULTON: The IAAS website says it is held January 15th through the 17th.

MEMBER PERZEE: The third full weekend.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: So we would want to plan this on the 14 th, the Thursday.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. So the 14th.
What happens on the 14 th, at what time?
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Um, well, traditionally that has been kind of an open meeting so everybody knows what is going to be discussed the next morning, but if we are trying to --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: This is a meeting just for the board, or it's a meeting for everybody, including the public?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: It's for the board and the public.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. And that would be at what time you are saying, 4:00?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: At -- well, it has been typically 5:00 or -- it has been typically at 6:00.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Uh-huh.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: So people can get in and get their rooms and get to the meeting.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And, again, forgive me, probably because I'm new to this, but what, I mean, you know, what's to say that on the 15th if you have an agenda that is sent ahead of time and that everybody knows what generally is going to be discussed and is circulated, you know, what --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Why couldn't it all be in one?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: It seems to me the 14th is a social time, is a time when, you know, people have the option to get to town early and attend whatever activities are going on, and then, you know, you work with a full agenda that has been, you know, properly distributed and posted and all of that on the 15th, and you start early and you work through it. I mean, it just seems to me that, you know, the 14th, $I$ don't see the necessity for that unless history, you know, proves otherwise.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, the morning meeting of the 15th, many of the carnival part of the industry are setting up their booths for the --

MEMBER PERZEE: For their vendor show.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: For the expo, their vendor show.

MEMBER PERZEE: They may be involved in the meeting portion of it, as well as fair people.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
MEMBER PERZEE: They would be tied up at that time to be able to participate.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: But if you, if you would like to just have it all in one meeting...

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, no. I mean, I just don't want to have two meetings where half the people come to one meeting and the other half of the people come to the other meeting and you kind of pick and choose which meeting you are going to go to. I think that ideally if this is the ideal time to do it, you know, and how much time are you allotting for this meeting? Is that a two, four-hour deal or what?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Um, we haven't usually allotted.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I know. But, I mean, typically how long does these meetings last?

MEMBER SPARKS: Two hours.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yeah, two to three hours, depending on what business we have.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I mean, does it make sense on the 15th, let's say for example, or the 14 th for that matter --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: 14th, yeah.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: -- to say, well, this is a time that works for everybody and this is when everybody will be available and that's the time that we are going to set for the meeting, because I don't want to get into a situation that, you know, you are getting half and half.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Right.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Because you have got the option to do that.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: I think that would be --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: I think that would be fine.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: We can hear public comments on that, but $I$ think if we had it Thursday at 6:00 --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And we will -- so why don't we table that for now.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And have the opportunity when we get to the public comments to get, you know, additional input on that.

Okay. So I guess we do go into public comments now, or is there more to be said about next meeting locations and times?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: I don't know that there is any more.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. The only thing that I was going to add, to the extent possible, and, again, $I$ would seek the public's comments on this, you know, maybe think that second meeting that we are supposed to have for the year, what makes sense, should we be looking at the end of the season for that meeting, and if that is basically the feedback that everybody is giving us, what month, what date, you know, we should tentatively look at.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh. Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: All right. So then --
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: I had one other, just a comment. We have typically had some inspectors attend the meetings, and even if it's just one meeting a year, I think it would be beneficial to the board to know if the inspectors have been running into issues with rides or with how, you know, what's going on that's new that can cause a public safety problem. I think it would be good to hear from our inspectors and just have them --

I mean, they usually get introduced during the January meeting, but maybe even give them a chance to give us some feedback if they have seen safety issues that we need to address. It would -- I mean, they are the ones out there. They see the good, the bad and the ugly, and they might be our best source of information.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Now you are talking about with respect to the January meeting?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yes.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So that would be kind of items that we would then flesh out for discussion and it should be included as part of the agenda?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Even in the case that we are going to have specific people that are going to be doing, and then we should name who those people are and what their responsibilities are so that everybody who is interested in the subject will have advanced notice.

I would only have one comment, and I think for future reference maybe $I$ would do this a little bit different, meaning $I$ kind of feel that the agenda was really in part the topics that we just went through, and that at this point before we open it for public comments, then I would have a question as to is there any new business outside of what already was decided and posted as the agenda that we would like to bring to the board's attention. Not necessarily to bring about a vote on it, because there has been no prior notice, but for purposes of --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Information.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: -- information and/or future discussion and/or feedback, again, from the public that's present.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Is there any new business that, you know, anybody wants to bring to the table from the board.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: I think that's a good idea, uh-huh.

So other business.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. Is there any new, other business?
(No response.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. Well, then, Madam Chair, then I would, you know, seek to hear from the public, and I believe the gentleman sitting next to my chief of staff, you know, had a question/comment before. Sir.

MR. KNIGHT: Well, if you needed a third member on the committee.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So this would be -- so I think, you know, as I said before, you know, we will get back on that issue, and I think, first of all, thank you for the offer, because I know that takes away from your personal time and your work time, but I think from a structural standpoint, I don't know that that really is, you know, that that would be, you know, workable, but we will have feedback on that.

I know that there were some comments regarding the date that people wanted to weigh in. Anybody?

MS. KELLY: I would just ask as a point of order for the court reporter, when you speak, if you can say your name, and if you are affiliated with an organization, if you can state that.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Perfect.
MR. KNIGHT: Doug Knight, Knights Action Park, Springfield.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: And I would say in response to his offer, when the committee starts doing some work, then we can go to members of the public for recommendations, suggestions and feedback. Okay?

MS. KELLY: Okay.
MR. DAME: My name is Ed Dame. I'm with North American Midway Entertainment. With respect to the dates, I was making clarification just via the website that Ryan pointed out, but to speak to that, what those meetings were to us in the industry is, Thursday night was an opportunity that gave us a platform with the committee. We got, we got to inform the board. They would bring up subjects. We would bring up subjects, and Thursday night was an expanded public speaking session. Those ideas were taken by the board. What had merit was utilized. What needed to be thrown in the garbage was just that, and that gave us a very, very, a great sense of involvement in the process here as being people in the industry, and when it went away, it was a frustrating experience for us. One we understood, but still very frustrating for us. It went away. We kind of expanded to the public session, which was a meeting similar to this on Friday morning.

So Thursday was important to us as an industry, and if it ever were to occur again, I don't think we would be too opposed, and it was very well attended.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And the reason that it went away was because of budget issues? CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: For the state to reimburse?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, I can tell you, because I'm living it (Laughter), the budget issue has not gone away, and I think that what

I would put to the board then, from my standpoint $I$ don't have any problem with, you know, going back to the old format, but, you know, it may involve a little bit of shared sacrifice, and if the board is willing to engage in shared sacrifice for the, you know, greater good, and in that sense, you know, accommodate this request, you know --

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Meaning you would want us to forego our $$ 36$ a day?
(Laughter.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, I think that it probably -- Dan or Ryan, does it weigh into room reimbursement?

MR. CULTON: (Nodding.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So it's not the $$ 36$.
It's probably the hotel, right?
MR. KIRSCHNER: And travel expense.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, the travel expense would still be reimbursed because they got to go there.

MEMBER SPARKS: It is hotel expense.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: But I think you are talking about hotel and extra day of per diem, that's basically what we are talking about.
MEMBER SPARKS: It wasn't even an extra day of per diem um because it got over early. It was typically 8:00 o'clock in the morning.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So it's really the hotel.

MR. KIRSCHNER: There was a second reason, which, it wasn't unanimous that everyone preferred the comments beforehand, and one of reasons it got flip-flopped because the Department was receiving complaints that people didn't know what the board was going to say and they wanted to have an opportunity to respond at the board meetings. So that's why the comments were then put at the end of the board meeting. And then we received complaints they people wanted to speak -- and it's just kind of like a seesaw back and forth trying to find the right place for it.

I don't think any board member really cares whether it's at the beginning or at the end. It's just some years we would get more complaints that, hey, we got this platform beforehand but we don't know what the board is going to discuss tomorrow. So the following year we moved the platform to the end of the meeting, and people complained, hey, we didn't get to say anything beforehand.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, those are the two sides of it, and I think people want to be heard, but if they only -- but in some cases if they are not heard until the end of the meeting, then it's too late to go back and change any of our decisions perhaps, or we could reopen our board meeting after public comment if we -- if we thought that would pretty much solve the problem. Then the public could hear what's being discussed and what the board is trying to accomplish. We can have public comments, and then if there is something that we feel could, could be benefited, or we could benefit by going back and reopening our meeting, and then that could, that could make it good for everybody just to have the one day. Would that --

MR. KIRSCHNER: The important thing from a standpoint of rule making by statute.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-hmm.

MR. KIRSCHNER: There is always a public comment section before any rule is voted on. So in terms of just general board business, there is not a lot of actual voting that goes on. So in terms of the comments that come afterwards, we have always incorporated those into our thought processes in terms of our discussions on the board business. In terms of actual voting on rule, there would never be a situation where we would vote on the rule and the public wouldn't get a chance to comment on it before we voted, because the rule has to be published, give notice, they have to have the opportunity to speak to the rule before the rule is voted on.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: And I understand that, but don't we want to just do the rule right the first time, and if the public is going to have a lot of heartburn about it, let's hear that first, and then anything we submit, as far as we know, isn't going to cause, you know, problems, and make the whole process have to, you know, restart again.

MR. KIRSCHNER: You have been on the board a lot longer than $I$ have. It's been five years. We have never discussed and approved a rule in the same meeting, let alone two meetings or three meetings. It's going to involve a process over a long amount of time anyways.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Let me ask a question now from the board. Is there general concurrence with the gentleman's observations regarding the value of that, you know, session on Thursday as a way of, you know, venting, you know, talking, meeting, dah, dah, dah. Yes? Is there -- yes? Yes, sir.

MS. KELLY: I think you have to orally say something.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah.
MEMBER SCHWABE: I have only been on the board three years. So I have been to three of these meetings. So the first one I went to was the two-day thing, and then the next two were the single-day.

To Dan's point, everything gets taken care of publicly. The rules are made. The public sees the rules. Then we vote on them. So the two-day thing, in my opinion, was kind of a waste.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And you got his name? THE COURT REPORTER: Yep.

MS. KELLY: There was a gentleman on the phone.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Angelo is it? Do you have something to say?

MEMBER MAZZENGA: (Inaudible.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: We can't hear you.
MEMBER MAZZENGA: Hello.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Yeah. You got to speak up.

MEMBER MAZZENGA: Okay. I'm sorry. Yes. I'm just wondering why we can't have the -- I'm wondering why we can't have the board meeting say Thursday afternoon and the public hearing in the evening. Is there -- is there a reason for the ordering of the public hearing on Thursday night and board meeting on Friday morning? Because I agree that I like getting it done in one day and not having to do the overnight because I have to take off of work to be at the meeting, you know.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: There is a member of the public. Sir, can you identify yourself please.

MR. JOHNSON: I'm Bill Johnson, president of Fantasy Amusement Company. In 2010 I was the OABA chairman.

I think last year the biggest problem, and maybe correct me if I'm wrong, the people that were there, it became a 2:00 o'clock meeting, and that was hard for out-of-towners to be there at 2:00. I don't think we have a problem, and correct me, Ed, if you might or Dame does, but if you started later on Thursday, maybe 4:00 o'clock or 5:00 o'clock so that the public could get there, especially if we know well in advance. I think I found out maybe two days before, Margaret Vaughn sent us information that the meeting was going to be at 2:00 o'clock.

So, you know, if you want to plan it one day, I don't object to that personally, but I would say later in the day, to start, you know, 4:00 or 5:00 o'clock. I also like the fact that if there is more public comments. It's kind of hard after the meeting to have a public comment, and I'm not sure if you can have a public comment before and you do your board meeting and after, you know, somehow that -- at that meeting in January you will see most of the carnivals are there. So it's nice to get their opinion.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So your suggestion, sir, would be, start let's say at 4:00 o'clock and start with public comments and go into board, into the board meeting afterwards? Is that what you are saying?

MR. JOHNSON: Well, you can have your agenda like we normally do.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Right.
MR. JOHNSON: And I think 4:00 o'clock would work for some. We would have to talk to, probably send it out to the OABA board, because a lot of those people show up. Some of them come in from Florida. But I think 4:00 o'clock is workable instead of 2:00 o'clock, and try to have your open meeting like you normally do, have some public comment, and then you have your board meeting. And I know at your board meeting there isn't any public comment unless if we are called upon, and I have attended probably a dozen of those board meetings, been called upon five or six different times. Sometimes I was also told later they would ask me a question.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So if I understand what you are suggesting, start at 4:00, try to get it all done in one day.

MR. JOHNSON: Yes. That would solve some people's problems, they don't have to take off of work. That would solve your hotel problem, and I believe in two, three hours you can probably get everybody out of there.

Now, last year -- one year you had it at -- what did we have to drive? We had to drive about a mile down the road. Is that what you would do this year? Would it be at the hotel or...

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: We don't know yet, but I would like to, you know, work with what has worked before, what has proven to be most convenient for everybody.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: The hotel.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: And then work with a logistics of budget, et cetera.

MR. JOHNSON: The hotel was better for some people.

MR. MUMPHER: Approximately how many people will show up? Approximately how many people will normally come to these?

MR. MASSIE: Seventy-five.
MR. MUMPHER: Seventy-five?
MR. MASSIE: Fifty.
MR. DAME: Seventy-five to a hundred easy.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yeah. I would say 75 to a hundred. We easily have had --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
MR. KIRSCHNER: Again, the reason it was moved to the Department of Labor -- I'm sorry. Department of Transportation, again, because that's a free space of the state, whereas we would have to rent a ballroom at the hotel. So that was the reason it was moved up the road.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Nobody ever went to the Department of Labor, to our beautiful 900 South Spring Street?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Is there a room big enough there?
(Laughter.)
MR. KIRSCHNER: The other reason for moving it up, why the previous administration moved it up to 2:00 o'clock, was because I think there were five board members coming from the north, coming from the Chicago area, and then if you have a meeting that starts at 5:00 or 6:00 or 4:00 or 5:00 and you are getting out at 6:00 or 7:00, it gets kind of late to then -- you can't get the train back to Chicago.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, you are not going to take the train. We are staying. Take train there.

I still haven't posted one of the questions that I have, which may be the ultimate question, but I'm deferring that one.

MR. KIRSCHNER: So that's the whole point, trying to coordinate with the train schedule back and forth.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Got you. So now, besides the individuals that have already spoken from the public, anybody else who wants to weigh in to this discussion, scheduling?

MR. KNIGHT: Doug Knight, Knights Action Park again. I think if you had the meeting so that the public could see what you were talking about, and then they are in a better position to make comments. I mean, nine times out of ten $I$ go there $I$ don't have any idea what's on your mind until I listen to what you folks have to talk about, and then it sparks the public comment.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
MR. KNIGHT: Last year it was published the meeting was at 6:00 o'clock in the evening. I showed up at 6:00. When I hit the lobby I was told it was at 2:00.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, that's not going to happen.

MR. KNIGHT: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: That 1 can tell you is not going to happen under my watch. Now, if I hear it correctly, at least two board members, Angelo, and, sir, what is your name?

MEMBER SCHWABE: Dan Schwabe.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. So Angelo and Dan have already weighed in that they are in favor of the one-day deal.

MEMBER SCHWABE: (Nodding.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Anybody else on the board in favor of the one-day.

MEMBER SPARKS: I'm in favor of the one-day, Bill Sparks.

MR. KIRSCHNER: I think that's pretty --
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. So we got a majority in favor of the one-day deal. So then maybe my ultimate question, and I don't know what the budget situation is going to be, but is there any one of you who would be opposed to assuming the room charge?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: For Thursday night?
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Foregoing it if we do the one-day deal?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Sure.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. So that will be no issue of us as a state. Anybody else that would have a problem with that?

MEMBER SCHWABE: Well, my comment on that is, I probably wouldn't stay overnight. It's my busiest time. I would drive home.

Dan has a point. If the meeting ended at 7:00 o'clock, it's going to take me four and a half hours to get home. I will be getting home --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, I think we all have -- I'm based in Chicago. I think that most of us would have that same issue unless we decided to stay, but I think what I'm hearing is that for a lot of reasons, and, you know, that it makes sense to have a one-day meeting, that it doesn't make any sense to start any earlier than 4:00 o'clock in fairness to the people that are trying to make it there, and that we have to find a venue that makes sense, and I will commit to that and figure out how we do it so that it works for everybody. I would like to see if we can maybe do a hotel that you guys talked about. Is there a particular hotel?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Crowne Plaza.
MEMBER PERZEE: Everybody is there -- MEMBER SPARKS: Not at the Crowne Plaza.

MEMBER PERZEE: -- not at the Crowne Plaza, the one day that would probably be attending the meeting.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: No. The meetings are usually at the Crowne Plaza.

MEMBER SPARKS: But I think he is talking about at the hotel where we stayed at.

MR. KIRSCHNER: Oh, you stayed next door at the Hilton?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, we got the same price at either place. So it didn't really matter.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Has there ever been a discussion because of the fact that, you know, everybody is patronizing the Crowne Plaza that the Crowne Plaza would do something for us in terms of providing us with a room for some sort of insider? Does anybody have a connection with the Crowne Plaza.

MR. KIRSCHNER: Ryan has tried in the past, I believe, and they're booked up is the problem.

MR. MUMPHER: Well, we also have the Department of Transportation, which is right across the street from the Crowne Point.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: No, it's down. MEMBER PERZEE: You got to park and then --
MR. MUMPHER: The price is right as far as budget.

MR. KIRSCHNER: That's what we did two years ago.

MR. KNIGHT: I know the general manager of Crowne.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: You know the general manager?

MR. KNIGHT: Yes, sir.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Doug Knight
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So, Patty, can you work with this gentleman?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: See if we can make it work.

MR. KNIGHT: Okay.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: So we will work then towards a 4:00 o'clock starting time on Thursday, January the 14th. You know, we will try to keep to the traditional time agenda, which is two to three hours, and the rest is just going to be guided by how much more input we get from the public and the agenda that we have at that point. Does that make sense? CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Uh-huh.

MS. KELLY: Patty, could you keep me in the loop on the Crowne Plaza conversation? CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Sure. Sure, because you will have to see the details before anything gets signed, right?

MS. KELLY: Well, we also want to make sure we don't violate the Ethics Act.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Which is --
MS. KELLY: Well --
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, at different times we have been offered that like the fair boards would sponsor the room.

MS. KELLY: Okay. We can have a conversation about this. I just want to make sure that --

MEMBER PERZEE: Chairman.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yes.
MEMBER PERZEE: We need, when you talk with the Crowne Plaza, remind them that about everybody that is going to be at the meeting is already a customer. We are already staying there for four or five days. They ought to have a room that is sufficient for 75 people for three hours without some gigantic charge.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Right.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Exactly. That's the point.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yeah. We agree. We agree.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I'm not talking about anything other than, you know, a business transaction based on the fact that they are getting all these people who are customers.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Right.
MS. KELLY: Right.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: And, yeah, they are coming out way ahead so I would think one room shouldn't be that difficult.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: All right. Any other -- sir. Just identify for the court reporter.

MR. JOHNSON: Other discussion now that that case is closed, we are moving onto more discussion; is that correct?

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yes.
MR. JOHNSON: Bill Johnson, Fantasy Amusement Company. Um, first of all, tablets, terrific. Best idea you guys had in a long time. It was terrific for us getting the email, immediately sending it to the city I was in. Inspectors love that.

Second of all, um, I did meet with Marty, with Margaret Vaughn. We actually gave him different ideas, and $I$ think he was receptive. I'm not sure what happened there. Marty and I go way back because he used to be a mayor of a city that I worked. So I think that we could work with Marty again on that.

Unfortunately, talking to different fair managers, one was the Sandwich Fair, they hire or have volunteers of over 700 for that one week alone. So the cost in order to run background checks on all of them, they just couldn't do it, and, Marvin, I don't know how many you had, you were talking about all your people too.

MEMBER PERZEE: Well, and the other part -- Marvin Perzee. The other part that comes in, when you get down to Central, Illinois, a lot of people are pretty independent, and you got a volunteer who you have asked to help you for five days for the fair for nothing, and then you tell them you got to subject to a background check, and they are probably the best guys that ever broke shoe leather, but they are objectionable.

So it's going to be -- we are going to have to find a lot of new help. Plus we probably have about 350 at our fair. I know we couldn't afford it.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Right.
MR. DAME: Ed Dame with North American Midway. As the current law sits, I worked that with Margaret Vaughn, the OABA, and with my senator, Pamela Althoff, and we put this together. You may want to encourage legislators to take a look at the history of what we have already been down. This road was so well explored. I mean, even the State Fair came back and said, really, you want the people driving the volunteer tram to submit to background checks? How do you want this to go? CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: That's a dead horse that has been beaten.

MR. DAME: So you may want to encourage them to go back through the history. I testified before the Labor Board of the Senate on this issue with Pam Althoff and Margaret Vaughn, and they understood that we have been here, we have done this, and be more than happy to visit it again, but look at the history before you go after this again. It has already been there.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Any other comments from the public? Any other issues from the public that they want to raise? Yes, sir.

MR. JOHNSON: Bill Johnson, Fantasy
Amusement Company. As far as the anti-waiver that you are trying to do, please work with Margaret Vaughn and the OABA on that. I think we would be definitely opposed to that, but work with the OABA. We have had a good relationship as far as Illinois and the OABA. It has been a terrific relationship. I think,

Ryan, you got Bob's number, and you just call Bob if there are any issues, and the OABA, for those that don't understand the OABA, we have 5,000 members. We actually help write different laws to protect the citizens and the carnivals. So we are all about safety too.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: In many states.
MR. JOHNSON: Yeah, and as far as Patty, she knows more about carnival rides and safety than everybody put together in this room and probably all the carnival owners in Illinois. She's attended how many ASTM meetings? She has taught at ASTM meetings. So it was a terrific choice.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: For over 20 years.
After that $I$ stopped counting.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay.
MEMBER SCHWABE: I would just like to make one comment about the background checks as far as Great America is concerned. Because they employ almost 4,000 sometimes in the summer and they have people in the background offices, warehouses, that never even interact with the public. So since this is for public protection, I'm assuming these background checks are for people who have interaction with the public, and there are people that work there, hundreds, that never even interact with the public.

MR. DAME: The current law is for ride operators and attendants, not the office staff.

MEMBER SCHWABE: Correct, but if they are changing it for everyone.

MR. DAME: Right.
MEMBER SCHWABE: Yes.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Okay. Anything else?
MR. KIRSCHNER: Motion to adjourn.
MEMBER SCHWABE: Second.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Do I hear a second?
MEMBER SPARKS: I will second.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Those in favor? (WHEREUPON, there was a chorus of ayes.)

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Anyone opposed? (No response.)

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Abstentions?
(No response.)
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: We are adjourned.

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: All right. Well, first of all, $I$ would like to thank Dan for the time that he served as chair. I know that serving as chair of any committee is always a challenge, but $I$ know that everybody that does it is because they are committed, and I know in the short time that he and I have been able to interface within the context of this body, I can tell you that he was Johnny on the Spot, if you forgive the characterization, as far as, you know, bringing me up to date what this board was all about, you know, kind of briefing me on the issues that this board has contended with and been challenged with, and so I really appreciate --

MR. KIRSCHNER: Thank you.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: -- all you have done for, you know, my predecessors as well as for me.
(Applause.)
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: I would like to also welcome and thank Patty for throwing her hat in the ring, and, you know, her offer to take on this, you know, challenging position, and really looking forward to working with you, Patty, as well as my new board members, and for those, you know, that have, you know, come today to be part of the public, not only do I appreciate your being here, but I really urge you to continue to come, to continue to provide us with your input, because I really, really want to have a board that $I$ can look to for guidance as we deal with the issues that confront, you know, this division. Thank you.

MR. KIRSCHNER: The one correction is not that someone who serves as a chair is committed, but they should be committed.
(Laughter.)
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yeah. Well, I'm on so many boards now, I was committed a long time ago, but we thank you for welcoming us here, and I think you will find that if you and any of your staff ever want to visit a carnival and have the owner take you around to the rides and show you some of the issues that there have been so that you get first-hand knowledge, because as you hear us talking about various things, you will go, What is that?

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Well, am I going to take you up on that, because actually my assistant director -- assistant to the director -- My Assistant Director, who is Anna, with the Assistant to the Director, Adam Schuster, took me to Great America and they took me on the rides there. So I'm ready. (Laughter.)

MEMBER SCHWABE: You are more than welcome to come back too.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: But I think especially those who are here, you would be welcome to go to any of their shows and especially when we are, when we start upgrading or updating some of our rules, it's helpful to know, what in the world.

MR. KIRSCHNER: He can't accept gifts. Make him buy a ticket.

CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Well, if he is getting a back-door tour --

DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: It's research.
CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: -- it's research.
DIRECTOR CHAVIANO: Earning your position. CHAIRPERSON SULLIVAN: Yes. So thank you very much, and thank you all, and if anybody has issues, don't hesitate to call Ryan or me if you want something, you know, discussed or looked at, and thank you, everybody. Have a safe trip home.

(Which were all the proceedings had at this time on the above-entitled cause.)
