Be advised that any document that a party intends to introduce as evidence during an investigation by the Department should be served by the party on the other party. You may use the "Certificate of Service" found at https://labor.illinois.gov/content/dam/soi/en/web/idol/certificate-of-service.pdf at a Department of Labor hearing as (rebuttable) evidence that you had delivered documents to the other party. IDOL will not provide copies of any of your documents (other than the Wage Claim application) to any party.
- Provide the correct name and address of your employer. If the employer is a corporation or Limited Liability Corporation (LLC), you can search the Secretary of State website to verify the employer's address at http://www.ilsos.gov/corporatellc/. This is a public site for locating companies in Illinois. If you do not have access to Internet, you can visit your local public library.
- You must provide an address where both the Department and opposing party (Employer) may serve you documents. It does not need to be your home address but should be an address to where legal documents may be sent and an address that you will check regularly.
- If you wish to expedite the process, the Department suggests that you provide an email address where documents can be served to you by the Department as well as the opposing party.
- If applicable, provide the name, address, and phone number of the attorney or community representative that helped you complete the form.
- You must update the Department in writing immediately if you have a change of address, phone number or email. If the Department recovers money on your behalf, we need your current address in order to send you your check.
- Do not submit any personal information, such as Social Security numbers, driver license numbers and bank or medical information. Redact or block out this information from the documents you submit.

- If you believe you are owed wages:
